

Henwyn personek

Personal names

Perhaps you are expecting a baby and would like to give the child a Cornish name. Here is a list of some personal names in Cornish.

Andrew (m)	Cornish equivalent of Andrew	Jeffra (m)	Cornish pet form of Geoffrey
Arthur (m)	the legendary king of Cornwall	Jenefer (f)	Cornish equivalent of Guinevere, the wife of King Arthur
Aswen (f)	saint who gave her name to Advent, Cornish patron saint of sweethearts	Jenken (m)	Cornish Christian name as well as surname
Borlewen (f)	meaning 'morning star'	Jenna (f)	Cornish equivalent of Jane
Briallen (f)	meaning 'primrose'	Jori (m)	Cornish equivalent of George
Caradoc (m)	the name of a legendary Duke of Cornwall, meaning 'amiable' (see also Karadok)	Josep (m)	Cornish equivalent of Joseph
Chesten (f)	Cornish equivalent of Christine	Josepa (f)	Cornish equivalent of Josephine
Clemmo (m)	Cornish equivalent of Clemence (see also Klemmo)	Jowan (m)	Cornish equivalent of John
Conan (m)	Cornish saint (see also Konan)	Kaja (f)	meaning 'daisy'
Davydh (m)	Cornish equivalent of David	Karadok (m)	name of a legendary Duke of Cornwall, meaning 'amiable' (see also Caradok)
Demelza (m)	from the place name on Goss Moor, meaning 'Maeldaf's Fort'	Katel (f)	Cornish equivalent of Catherine
Dewi (m)	Cornish pet form of David	Ke (m)	saint who gave his name to the parish of Kea
Elowen (f)	meaning 'elm tree'	Kelyn (f)	meaning 'holly'
Elys (f)	Cornish pet form of Elizabeth	Kensa (m/f)	meaning 'first'
Eseld (f)	from the legend of Tristan and Eseld	Kenwyn (m)	saint who gave his name to the parish of Kenwyn
Gawen (m)	Cornish form of Gawain from the Arthurian legends	Kerensa (f)	meaning 'love'
Gerens (m)	Cornish form of Geraint, who gave his name to Gerrans on the Roseland	Klemmo (m)	Cornish equivalent of Clemence (see also Clemmo)
Humfra (m)	Cornish equivalent of Humphrey	Kytto (m)	Cornish equivalent of Christopher
Hykka (m)	Cornish pet form of Richard	Konan (m)	Cornish saint
Ia (f)	patron saint of St Ives	Lowena (f)	meaning 'joy'
Igerna (f)	the mother of King Arthur	Margh (m)	meaning 'horse', an early form of the name Mark
Jago (m)	Cornish equivalent of James	Maria (f)	Cornish equivalent of Mary
Jacka (m)	Cornish equivalent of Jack	Mathi (m)	Cornish pet form of Matthew
		Melwynn (f)	meaning 'fair honey'
		Meriasek (m)	patron saint of Camborne
		Mewan (m)	saint who gave his name to St Mewan near St Austell
		Mihal (m)	Cornish equivalent of Michael

Morgan (m)	meaning 'great song'	Tristan (m)	from the legend of Tristan and Eseld
Morgana (f)	female equivalent of Morgan	Uther (m)	the father of King Arthur
Morgelyn (f)	meaning 'sea holly'	Wella (m)	Cornish equivalent of William
Morvoren (f)	meaning 'mermaid'	Yestin (m)	Cornish equivalent of Justin
Morwenna (f)	saint who gave her name to Morwenstow
Nessa (m/f)	meaning 'second'
Nonna (f)	mother of St David of Wales, who gave her name to Altarnun
Nikka (m)	Cornish pet form of Nicholas
Pawl (m)	Cornish equivalent of Paul
Peder (m)	Cornish equivalent of Peter
Peran (m)	patron saint of Cornwall
Petrok (m)	saint who gave his name to Padstow
Piran (m)	patron saint of Cornwall (see also Peran)
Rosen (f)	meaning 'rose'
Ruan (m)	saint who gave his name to several places on the Lizard
Rudhek (m)	Cornish equivalent of Robin
Seleven (m)	saint who gave his name to St Levan
Senara (f)	saint who gave her name to Zennor
Sewena (f)	meaning success
Stefan (m)	Cornish equivalent of Stephen
Stefana (f)	Cornish equivalent of Stephanie
Talek (m)	meaning 'broad browed'
Talwynn (f)	meaning 'fair browed'
Tamara (f)	who gave her name to the river Tamar, according to legend
Tamsin (f)	Cornish equivalent of Thomasina
Taran (m)	meaning 'thunder'
Tegen (f)	meaning 'pretty little thing'
Tekka (f)	meaning 'fairer'
Tewdar (m)	the name of a king of Cornwall		