

What is a Yeth an Werin?

Informal gatherings of Cornish speakers, which occur across Cornwall, where you can practise your spoken Cornish in a relaxed atmosphere.

Yeth an Werin translates as language of the people.

Why attend a Yeth an Werin?

- A chance to practise spoken skills
- Opportunities to listen to spoken Cornish
- A chance to meet other Cornish speakers
- Become part of the Cornish speaking community
- Use your Cornish

TREMENGUMMYAS YETH AN WERIN

WHERE	WHEN	CONTACT	DATE ATTENDED
Penzance Alternate weeks Penzance Tennis Club cafe and Redwing Gallery.	Every Monday 12.30	Jonathan Ryan jonryan100851@hotmail.co.uk
Penzance Queens Hotel	Every Thursday 7.30pm	Jonathan Ryan jonryan100851@hotmail.co.uk
Illogan The Bridge Inn	Last Tuesday 7.30pm	Ray Chubb ray@spyrays.org01209 842394
Launceston The White Horse, Newport Square	2nd Monday 7.30pm	Sarah Cooke sarahcooke211@yahoo.co.uk
St Austell Online	Every Monday 10am	Andrew Johnson a.t.johnson@btinternet.com
St Ives Online	2nd Tuesday 7.30pm	Dee Brotherton tirhatavas@outlook.com
Truro The Old Ale House	2nd and 4th Tuesday 7.30pm	Emma Jenkin kowethasanyeth@gmail.com
YAW Warlinen Online	Every Thursday 7pm	Lianne Wilson facebook.com/groups/yaw.warlinen
Mullion The Old Inn	First Wednesday 8pm Alternates with Helston	Esther Johns estherjcroft@aol.com
Helston The Blue Anchor	First Wednesday 8pm Alternates with Mullion	Esther Johns estherjcroft@aol.com
Haverford West Coffee # 1, 47 Bridge Street	Second Saturday 10am - 12	Dewi Rhys - Jones silfanws@gmail.com
St. Ives The Cornish Arms, Carbis Bay	Third Tuesday 7.30pm	Dee Brotherton tirhatavas@outlook.com
Redruth Buttermarket	1st and third Thursday 7pm	Emma Jenkin rosweyth@outlook.com	